

LARDNER SAYS MICHIGAN SHOULD HAVE WON—BASKETBALL NEXT SPORT ON CARPET

MINORS READY TO DEAL DEATH-BLOW TO MAJORS

Plan Wholesale Jump to Join Federals—Cause Is Lack of Support From Organized Baseball—Magnates Are Frightened Into Action.

A concerted movement by every minor league in the land to deal organized baseball the most crushing blow ever sustained is being made. If the present intention of the minors is carried out at the meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, scheduled to be held in Omaha, Neb., November 12 to 15, the result will be their complete withdrawal from organized baseball.

To take such a step, because they did not believe they could weather the storm of another year, even on a minimum salary basis, unless, of course, they were assured that the organized baseball of the Federal League would be organized against them.

Not until recently did the heads of organized baseball learn, or realize, that the minors really intended to bolt. There had been some whispering in baseball circles to the effect that the minors were not satisfied with the treatment they had received at the hands of the major leagues.

After analyzing the causes of the minor league grievances against organized baseball, it is readily seen what their object is. They intend to join with the Federals and march hand in hand with them, because of the assistance that has been rendered to them by the Federals.

Personal Touches in Sports

You have heard of Harry Lauder. The laughing canny Scot. Or, of Mrs. C. who is a very good one. Who does the turkey trot. Who warbles "I don't care." All star entertainers. And good beyond compare.

Park, Chicago. But the fans have displayed their loyalty through thick and thin. It has been mainly through Chicago. The White Sox have done so well. "Jimmy" Callahan for the past few years has not made the least effort to "change" the team. He has been a "punch" in the line of the "manager" into the players.

TEN DEATHS ARE CAUSED SO FAR BY FOOTBALL

Total Brought Up When Pittsburgh Youth Dies This Morning—Sixty-three Injured. The open game, which was supposed to do so much toward eliminating accidents in football, has not fulfilled its promise this season.

four occurred in high school games, four in independent team contests, one in a college interclass match and one in college practice. Only one of the players killed belonged to a carefully trained team. Of the multitude of college men who have played this fall, only two have been badly hurt.

HUGHITT AND SPLAWN LOST MICHIGAN GAME

Former Erred in Judgment and Latter Lost Signal. Lardner Believes Wolverines as Good as Harvard Despite Their 7 to 0 Defeat.

By RING W. LARDNER. BOSTON, Nov. 2.—After this, when an Easterner tells you that football teams in this neck of the woods outclass those of our Middle West, there is no reason to laugh yourself to death.

It was Hughitt's duty, on the play to be made, to hold the ball. He was in fact, and it was fourth down, with two yards to go. But wait a minute. A second before it had been third down, and it was fourth down, with two yards to go.

College Gridiron Gleanings

By EDWARD R. BUSHNELL. The detourment of every member of the "Big Six" is now complete. The feat of Williams College in outplaying and holding Princeton to a tie score of 7-7 leaves not a member of this sextet with a clean record.

Returning to the Pennsylvania-Swarthmore game there were a number of things which deserve special consideration. First of these was the running of Tucker. This young man carried the ball a total of 100 yards from scrimmage, not counting his 50-yard run for a touchdown from a kick-off.

Table with columns: College, Games, W, L, Tied, Pts, Opp. Rows include Princeton, Yale, Pennsylvania, Cornell, and Swarthmore.

From a local standpoint, two of Saturday's games were of interest and value. The first of these was the Harvard-Michigan game at Cambridge.
